EVENT DESCRIPTION

Family Day

Commander's Motivational Run

Family Day kicks off with the Commander's Motivational Run, where you'll have the chance to cheer on your candidate during a 2-mile formation run. Spectators can watch from the bleachers on the OCS Parade Deck. Guests typically dress casually and comfortably, keeping the weather in mind. For everyone's safety, please arrive and park no later than 10 minutes before the run starts. OCS merchandise, including T-shirts, sweatshirts, and challenge coins, will be available for purchase. This merchandise is cash only.

Liberty Period

After the run, your candidate will be granted liberty (authorized absence), giving you your first chance to spend time with your new Marine. This is a wonderful opportunity for your Marine to show you around the local area. Please ensure that your candidate is returned to Brown Field by 4:00 PM on Family Day; failure to do so may result in disenrollment from the program. You must drop your candidate off across the train tracks to utilize the pedestrian bridge for reentry to OCS. Families are not authorized on Brown Field after the conclusion of the Motivational Run.

Blessing of the Bars

The OCS Religious Ministry Team invites you to the Blessing of the Bars Ceremony. Drawing on the tradition of the Naval Aviation community's Blessing of the Wings Ceremony, the OCS Chaplain will lead a service of blessing for those graduates who would like to participate. Candidates should provide their own set of collar-sized 2ndLt bars. Uniform is proper civilian attire.

During WWII many Catholic Chaplains began blessing the wings of Catholic aviators. This tradition continued throughout the years and eventually became a 'Blessing of the Wings' Service in Navy Aviator Training Base Chapels. Eventually the service included other Christian traditions and became the 'Aviator's Blessing', accompanied by pinning a set of wings on a tapestry. Other military communities have participated in the pinning. We will gather to bless and send forth soon-to-be Marine Officers and pray for their well-being, safety, and effectiveness throughout their Marine Corps careers and beyond.

Friends and Family Social Dinner

The Family and Friends Social Dinner is an optional event designed for you to meet and interact with the OCS Commanding Officer, Sergeant Major, and training staff. Limited tickets are available for purchase. You can find the ticket sale link on our Facebook page below:

<https://www.facebook.com/USMCOCS/events/>

When purchasing your ticket, please select the option that corresponds to your candidate's company name. Please note that your candidate will not attend this event, as they will be participating in graduation practice. The event will take place at The Clubs at Quantico and Crossroads Event Center, located about a five-minute drive from OCS. The recommended attire is business casual. A seating chart will be provided to help arrange families and friends with their candidate's respective platoon staff.

Graduation

Graduation Parade & Commissioning Ceremony

The Graduation Parade recognizes candidates who have met the challenge and successfully completed OCS. During the parade, the top performing candidates and OCS staff will receive awards, the Commanding Officer and Reviewing Officer will each address the guests, and the candidates will conduct a pass-in-review. For those who meet commissioning requirements, the commissioning ceremony will take place during the Graduation Ceremony.

General audience seating is in the bleachers. VIP seating is in the reviewing stand. Accessible seats are available under the tents or in front of the bleachers. Seating is first come, first serve. The ceremony is held outdoors, so we encourage guests to dress appropriately for the weather. The uniform for this event is business casual for civilians and Seasonal Woodland MARPAT for Marines (or service equivalent). VIP guests will receive a formal invitation upon submission from their candidates.

Pinning Ceremony

At the conclusion of the Graduation and Commissioning Ceremony, a newly commissioned Marine may conduct their own personal pinning ceremony on the Parade Deck or other location of choosing. This formal ceremony allows the new Lieutenant to have individuals of their choosing pin the gold bars, signifying the rank of Second Lieutenant, on their uniform. They will also receive their first salute from an enlisted service member of their choice. Many candidates request their first salute from Staff Non-Commissioned Officers from their platoon staff, who play a crucial role in their development from candidate to Marine Corps Officer. Families are welcome to take pictures during this ceremony and may remain on Brown Field until 11:30 am.

DIRECTIONS

Gate Entry to OCS

There are only two entry gates easily assessable from Interstate 95 or Richmond Highway to Marine Corps Base Quantico that will grant you access to OCS.*

Russell Road Gate

This gate is commonly referred to the “Commissary Gate” or “back gate”. The hours are 5:00 am - 9:00 pm daily. This is the recommended gate when visiting OCS. When traveling on Interstate 95, use Exit 148 “Marine Corps Base Quantico”.

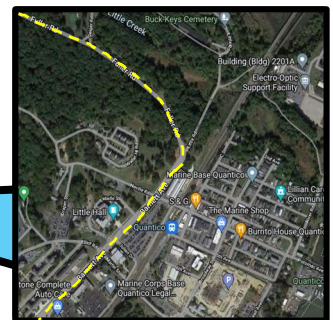

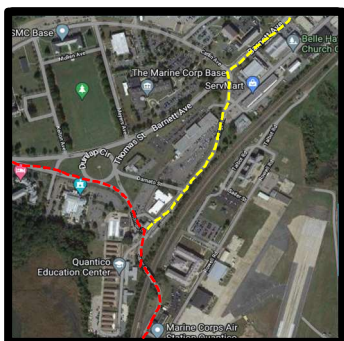

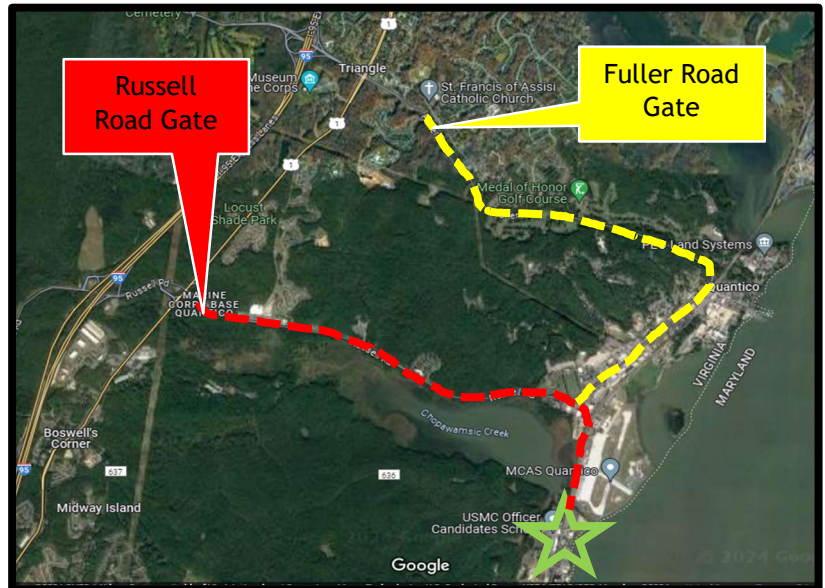

Once through the gate, continue straight on Russell Road. Keep right at the traffic circle while passing Crossroads Inn on Dunlap Road. Turn right at the stop sign onto Range Road. You have arrived at OCS.

Fuller Road Gate

This gate is commonly referred to the “Main Gate”. This gate is open 24/7. This gate is most used when traveling from Interstate 95 South by taking Exit 150A “Triangle/Quantico”.

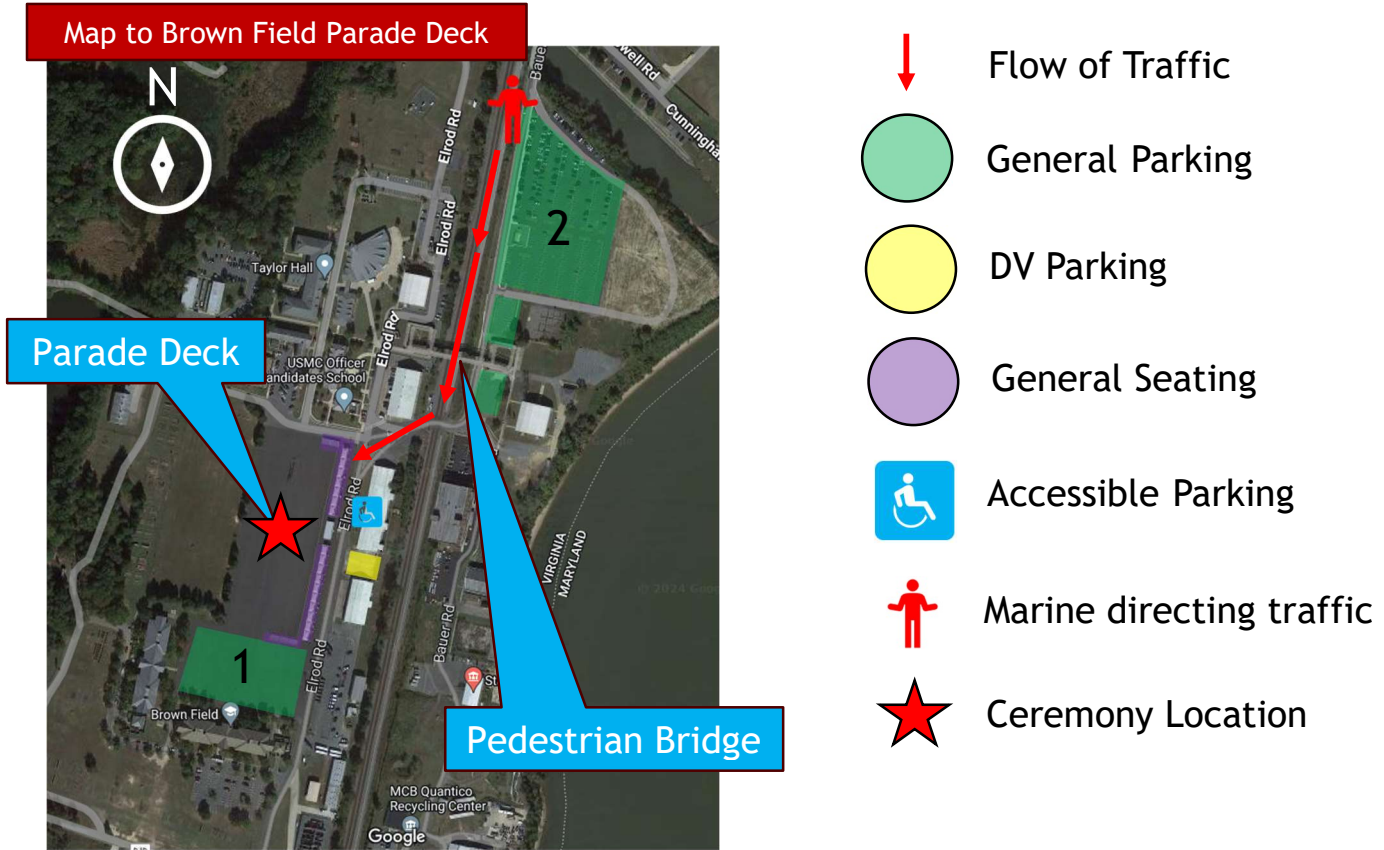

Once through the gate, continue straight on Fuller Road for over two miles. Follow the sharp right turn to a traffic light and continue straight through the light. You are now on Barnett Avenue. At the Y intersection, continue left. Keep left again towards a bridge. Continue straight and you have arrived at OCS.

 Please be aware that some GPS applications may direct vehicles to alternative gates. The gates mentioned above are the only gates that grant access to OCS. If you attempt to enter through another gate, you will be required to turn back.

Photography and video recording of airfield is strictly prohibited

PARKING AND SEATING INFORMATION

As you enter OCS, there will be Marines to guide you to a parking spot. There is limited parking on the Parade Deck and it is on a first come, first serve basis. This is identified as Parking Lot 1 above. Overflow parking will be just past the airfield on your left as you drive in. If you park in overflow parking, you must cross the pedestrian bridge over the train tracks to enter Brown Field. See Parking Lot 2 on map. Accessible parking is available. Tell the Marine ushering vehicles that you need an accessible spot, and he/she will guide you. Do not park on the road. All vehicles must park in a designated parking lot.

Accessible seating is limited. We recommend arriving early to secure a seat in the first row of bleachers.

For the best viewing experience, we recommend sitting near where your candidate will be staged in formation on the Parade Deck. The platoons will be arranged consecutively by company and platoon number from left to right as you face the Parade Deck. Look for signs or ask an usher for seating guidance. If you're unsure of your candidate's platoon, don't worry! They will be staged in the same location on graduation day as they were for their liberty formation on Family Day.

Any E-9, O-6, GS-15 or civilian/government equivalent, and above personnel with a candidate graduating/commissioning at OCS who would like VIP seating for the Graduation Parade should pass their information to their candidate prior to graduation. Names that have been submitted will receive a formal invitation via email with an RSVP link and coordinating instructions.

All obstacle courses, squad bays, barracks buildings, and equipment at OCS are off limits to both candidates and visitors.

VISITING A WORKING BASE

For many families, this is their first visit to an active military base. We recognize that the unfamiliar rules and regulations can be a bit intimidating. To help you navigate this new experience, we've put together a list of guidelines for base access as well as dos and don'ts while on the base.

Base Access Criteria

1. All individuals 18 years and older must possess a valid government ID.
2. You must print and display the Family Day and Graduation Base Access Pass on your vehicle's windshield. This pass will be attached to the Graduation Guidebook received directly from the graduating candidate during their command authorized liberty periods. For security purposes, the Base Access Pass will not be attached to the Graduation Guidebook that is stored on the OCS website. Failure to obtain the Family Day and Graduation Base Access Pass or those who do not possess a valid Common Access Card (CAC) will result in being denied entry to Marine Corps Base Quantico. Contact the graduating candidate prior to graduation if the current Graduation Guidebook you are viewing does not contain a pass at the end of the document.
 - a. All Foreign Visitors and their guests must coordinate the visit through the Services Section of the Provost Marshal Office at (703) 784-4423 or (703) 432-0341 or MCBQ_VCC@usmc.mil. A minimum of 10 days notification in advance of the visit is required to allow for adequate screening time. Be prepared to provide the following:
 1. First name, last name, middle name
 2. Date of birth and place of birth
 3. Passport number and citizenship
 4. Dates of stay
 5. Purpose of visit
3. Upon arriving at the gate with the necessary documents, let the gate sentry know the reason for your visit—either Family Day or Graduation. Once you receive permission, proceed to OCS.
4. Do not deviate from the approved route to OCS.

Dos and Don'ts

Visiting a military base can feel like stepping into a different world, and the rules might not be immediately clear. To help you navigate, we've put together some handy dos and don'ts that will ensure you fit right in.

Dos

- Address military personnel by their rank and last name displayed on their uniform. When in doubt, "Sir" or Ma'am" is always appropriate.
- Refer to Marines as "Marines" not "soldiers". Soldier is actually an individual serving in the U.S. Army.
- Show courtesy and respect to other families and military personnel who consider Marine Corps Base Quantico their home or regularly commute and work here.
- Abide by the posted speed limits.

Don'ts

- Do not approach candidates or Marines while in formation.
- Do not walk across the Parade Deck.
- Civilians do not salute service members.
- Do not use your phone while operating a vehicle.
- Do not take photos of candidates or instructors still undergoing training.

Flag Etiquette

The United States Marine Corps has long established a tradition of rendering proper honors and courtesies to the American Flag with ceremony and decorum. If this is your first visit to a military installation, we would like to acquaint you with “Flag Etiquette” and welcome you to join us in showing courtesy to our Flag as defined by U.S. Code Title 4 and 36, and as observed aboard Marine Corps Base Quantico.

In observance of U.S. Code Title 4 and 36, individuals in uniform, members of the armed forces not in uniform, and military veterans may render a military salute to the American Flag while it is being hoisted, being lowered, and passing by. The same courtesies should be rendered while the National Anthem is played.

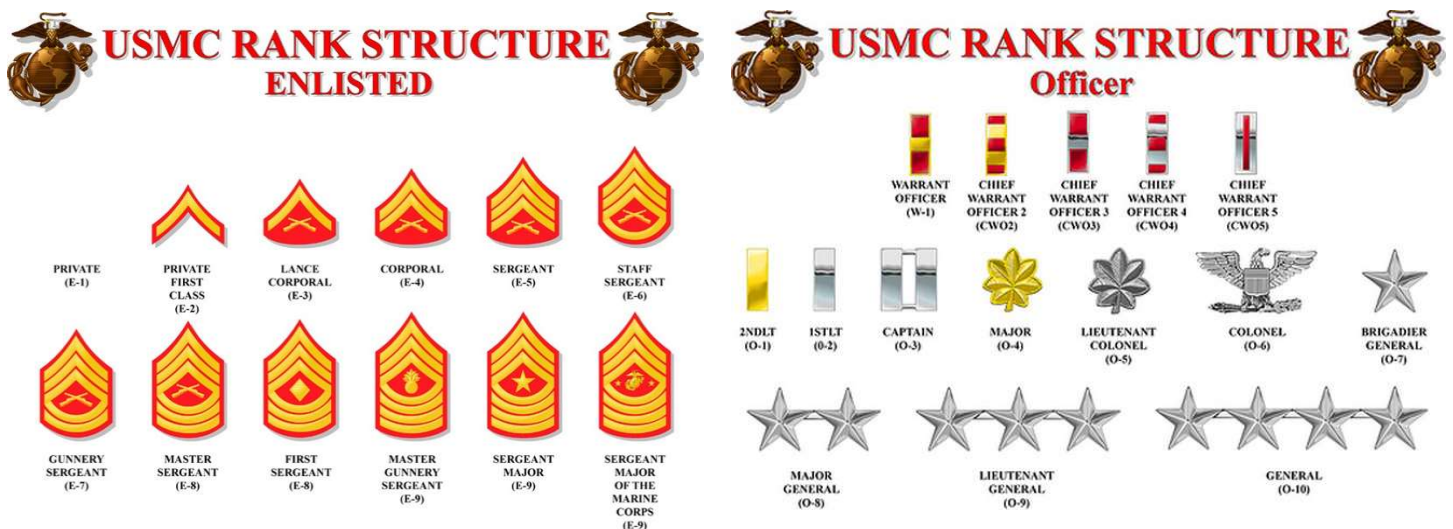

Gentlemen wearing hats who do not render a salute to the flag should remove their head gear and on the first note of the National Anthem, place their right hand over their heart until the last note of the National Anthem. Ladies are not required to remove their headdress. On the first note of the National Anthem, ladies should stand, face the flag, and place their right hand over their heart until the last note of the National Anthem. All present should remain standing until the last note of the National Anthem is played.

If the Flag is not visible during the National Anthem, please stand and face the sound of the music. If driving during Morning or Evening Colors, persons in vehicles within sight or hearing of the ceremony should halt the vehicle at the side of the road and remain inside the vehicle until the final bugle call “Carry On” is sounded.

When Honors are being rendered to the Flag, or while it is passing in a parade of review, it is considered disrespectful to smoke, talk, to take pictures, or to be involved in boisterous or noisy activity. If you are in doubt, ask the military personnel about appropriate courtesies at any time, or look around. The immediate vicinity will guide your actions.

SEVERE WEATHER PLAN

Graduating candidates on the OCS Parade Deck is a momentous occasion, and we are committed to holding the ceremony onsite. We will only activate the severe weather plan in the event of severe conditions, such as thunderstorms, lightning, or icy weather. Should a weather call be made, we will make the determination no later than 24 - 48 hours prior to the event, inform the candidates directly, and provide an official announcement via our Facebook page. We recommend regularly monitoring the OCS Facebook Page (<https://www.facebook.com/USMCOCS>) in the days leading up to Family Day and Graduation for the most up-to-date information.

The alternate indoor location for the OCS Graduation Ceremony is Little Hall aboard Marine Corps Base Quantico. Due to limited seating in the venue, the graduation timeline is subject to change to accommodate graduating multiple companies. The venue address is 2034 Barnett Ave, Quantico, VA, 22134.
